Wholesalers and Wholesale Distribution
Business Practices

639.570. Employees of wholesalers or manufacturers; adoption of marketing code of conduct; training; investigation policies; submission of information to Board; Board to report certain information to Governor and Legislature; duties of Board

1. A wholesaler or manufacturer who employs a person to sell or market a drug, medicine, chemical, device or appliance in this State shall:

(a) Adopt a written marketing code of conduct which establishes the practices and standards that govern the marketing and sale of its products. The marketing code of conduct must be based on applicable legal standards and incorporate principles of health care, including, without limitation, requirements that the activities of the wholesaler or manufacturer be intended to benefit patients, enhance the practice of medicine and not interfere with the independent judgment of health care professionals. Adoption of the most recent version of the Code on Interactions with Healthcare Professionals developed by the Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America satisfies the requirements of this paragraph.

(b) Adopt a training program to provide regular training to appropriate employees, including, without limitation, all sales and marketing staff, on the marketing code of conduct.

(c) Conduct annual audits to monitor compliance with the marketing code of conduct.

(d) Adopt policies and procedures for investigating instances of noncompliance with the marketing code of conduct, including, without limitation, the maintenance of effective lines of communication for employees to report noncompliance, the investigation of reports of noncompliance, the taking of corrective action in response to noncompliance and the reporting of instances of noncompliance to law enforcement authorities in appropriate circumstances.

(e) Identify a compliance officer responsible for developing, operating and monitoring the marketing code of conduct.

2. A wholesaler or manufacturer who employs a person to sell or market a drug, medicine, chemical, device or appliance in this State shall submit to the Board annually:

(a) A copy of its marketing code of conduct;

(b) A description of its training program;

(c) A description of its investigation policies;

(d) The name, title, address, telephone number and electronic mail address of its compliance officer; and

(e) Certification that it has conducted its annual audit and is in compliance with its marketing code of conduct.

3. On or before January 15 of each odd-numbered year, the Board shall prepare and submit to the Governor, and to the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau for transmittal to the Legislature, a compilation of the information submitted to the Board pursuant to this section, other than any information identified as a trade secret in the information submitted to the Board.

4. The Board:

(a) Shall adopt regulations providing for the time of the submission and the form of the information required pursuant to this section and defining "compliance" for the purposes of this section.

(b) May not require the disclosure of the results of an audit conducted pursuant to this section.

(c) Shall post on its Internet website information concerning the compliance of all wholesalers and manufacturers with the requirements of this section.

(d) Shall not disclose any proprietary or confidential business information that it receives pursuant to this section.
